Background

Gil's passion is enhancing organization effectiveness.

Focusing mainly on continuous improvement and boosting employee engagement, Gil draws heavily on his extensive experience with the Baldrige National Quality Award. In addition to using the Baldrige methodology in his work with clients, Gil has served as an Examiner for the Excellence in Missouri Foundation in assessing applications for state Baldrige recognition.

From 2009-2013, he served as Vice President, Human Resources & Organization Effectiveness at Provident Inc. In that role, Gil ensured Provident's continued accreditation by the Joint Commission as a behavioral health entity. As a member of Provident's Senior Leadership Team, he facilitated all strategic planning initiatives with the organization's leadership.

Gil worked with the business community from 1985-2009 as Managing Principal of Gil Lewis & Associates, a consulting firm dedicated to having the right people, doing the right things, the right way, at the right cost, with the right return.

Prior to 1985, Gil served in various HR management positions at Emerson Electric Co., Chase Manhattan Bank, Unisys, and Pullman Incorporated.

Gil also has taught Human Resources and Management classes at both the graduate and undergraduate levels as an adjunct faculty member at Webster University.

He earned his Master's degree in Human Resources Management and Manpower Development from the New School for Social Research in New York City.
